Sponsoring one of our beagles is a great way to show your support for Midwest BREW. We rely on the donations of generous animal lovers like you to be able to rescue beagles. In many cases, these homeless dogs require extensive veterinary care—much more than the adoption donation covers. Each beagle that comes into BREW Midwest is brought current on shots, heartworm tested, spayed or neutered, dewormed, and microchipped. In addition, we must supply flea/tick and heartworm preventatives, any continuing medication, and occasionally even food until that beagle is adopted. Sometimes they are kenneled for brief time until a foster home opens up. If the beagle needs treatment for heartworm, we provide that as well. Heartworm treatment alone is over $200 for each beagle.

Examples of what your sponsorship can provide:

- $10 – One Microchip OR One dose of Frontline OR One month of heartworm preventative

- $25 – De-Worming Medication

- $40 – 4DX Test (Heartworm, Lyme, Ehrlichia, Anaplasmosis)

- $50 – Wellness Exam

- $75 – Basic Vaccines

- $100 – Bloodwork for a Senior Beagle

- $200 – Spay or Neuter

- $250 – Heartworm Treatment

As an all volunteer non-profit organization, we rely on your support to be able to provide this care. Your sponsorship can be a onetime gift to help care for that beagle, or can be a monthly contribution to provide continuing care. So, think about sponsoring. You won't change the world by helping one beagle, but you'll change that beagle's world forever.
